

‘SAUTER is still available for you, and we deliver as usual.’

Together we are in changing times, and nobody can assess their exact business requirements over the next few weeks.

Our manufacturing capacities have been adjusted to current customer demands accordingly, and our manufacturing capabilities are not disrupted. We will continue to manufacture all customer orders in compliance with the legal obligations required per the Covid-19 pandemic.

Due to rapidly changing Covid-19 conditions in Germany and throughout the world, our manufacturing operations may adjust accordingly in the future. In case of any changes, we will react immediately and inform you.

We wish you and your families safety and good health - Together, we will overcome this crisis in solidarity.

All the best, please take care of yourself and stay healthy.

Your SAUTER team